Lab - Research Laptop Specifications

Laptops often use proprietary parts. To find information about the replacement parts, you may have to research the website of the laptop manufacturer.

Before you begin this lab, you need to know some information about the laptop.

Your instructor will provide you with the following information:

Laptop Manufacturer:	Dell Inc.
Laptop Model Number:	G3 15 3579
Amount of RAM:	32 GB
Size of the Hard Drive:	1 TB 5400 RPM HDD

Answer the following regarding your laptop model.

1. Use the Internet to locate the website for the laptop manufacturer. What is the URL for the website?

   https://www.dell.com/en-ph

2. Locate the service section of the website and look for links that focus on your laptop. It is common for a website to allow you to search by the model number.

   List the links you found specific to the laptop and include a brief description of the information in that link.

   This link has information about the following operating systems that the laptop support.

3. Briefly describe any service notices you found on the website. A service notice example is a driver update, a hardware issue, or a recall notice for a laptop component.

   The dell support website for the laptop has driver specifications and a diagnostic page where you can get tips on how to troubleshoot certain mishaps. It also has a service request ticket for more specific laptop issues.
